Standing the Watch

Ed Copher, Editor, "Saints Everlasting Keeper of the Flame"

"Keeper of the Flame"

Memories glimmer and hide in the dim shadows

Daring us to '...catch me...if you can!'...

As time steadily treads its own meandering path,

It's hard to trace old members of the clan.

Then someone steps up with lantern and blade

Shouting, "Let's gather them in for us all, good neighbor!"

We'll bring forth those hidden in the shade, and Share them with one and another!

"I'll keep that flame high and the blade ever sharp,

That our friends may never be lost in the dark!"

ONCE A SAINT, ALWAYS A SAINT

Reunion's Info:

1. Saints Reunion: 3-5 Nov 2021, Virginia Beach, contact Ed Chadwick chadco@chadcorealestate.com

UPDATE 29 June 2021: 45 folks have indicated that they will attend.

Let me know the name of the person or persons who will be accompanying you. Don't forget to reach out to other squadron mates and sell them on meeting us in November. So far there are 45 souls represented. We will increase our numbers and enjoyment, if you help. Leave no one behind. Thanks, The other Ed

01 June 2021: We are very close to having a reunion and securing a hotel in Virginia Beach, VA. The main events would occur on November 3rd, 4th and 5th, with a banquet on the night of the 5th. I need a head count to conclude negotiations with the hotel and to line up events. Please respond with:

Whether you plan to attend?

How many people?

Number of nights you would use the hotel?

Whether you can walk 150 yards [for one tour]?

This is only a showing of interest, not a commitment. However we need the numbers to be as accurate as possible. The Reunion is for all members of the Squadron, their friends and families. The airport serving the area is Norfolk International [ORF]. You will be happy to know that the event is planned to be one of the least expensive which we have enjoyed. Please respond to this email, while you remember receiving it.

Like ASAP! Thanks.

Ed Chadwick chadco@chadcorealestate.com

ALSO:

Would everyone please check to see if all their contact information is current on the squadron roster (located on the website).

Ed Copher could you give step by step instructions on how to access it and how to have the corrections made? In addition it would also be good to have your readers check on listings other than their own and help make corrections for their mates who cannot follow instructions, don't read the newsletter or other reasons. I will be using the rooster to make contact with folks. For corrections to the roster, contact Ed Copher newsman242@gmail.com

I Was A Sailor Once

*** I liked standing on the bridge wing at sunrise with salt spray in my face and clean ocean winds whipping in from the four quarters of the globe - the ship beneath me feeling like a living thing as her engines drove her swiftly through the sea.

*** I liked the sounds of the Navy - the piercing trill of the boatswain's pipe, the syncopated clangor of the ship's bell on the quarterdeck, the harsh squawk of the 1MC, and the strong language and laughter of sailors at work.

*** I liked Navy vessels -- nervous darting destroyers, plodding fleet auxiliaries and amphibs, sleek submarines and steady solid aircraft carriers.

*** I liked the proud names of Navy ships: Midway, Lexington , Bunker Hill, Saratoga , Coral Sea, Antietam, Valley Forge - - memorials of great battles won and tribulations overcome.

*** I liked the lean angular names of Navy "tin-cans" and escorts - - Barney, Dahlgren, Mullinix, McCloy, Damato, Leftwich, Mills, Stickell, Noa, Paul, Coontz, T.C. Hart, Glover - - mementos of heroes who went before us.

And the others - - San Jose, San Diego, Los Angeles, St. Paul, Chicago - named for our cities.

*** I liked the tempo of a Navy band blaring through the topside speakers as we pulled away from the oiler after refueling at sea.

*** I liked Liberty Call and the spicy scent of a foreign port.

*** I even liked the never-ending paperwork and all-hands working parties as my ship filled herself with the multitude of supplies, both critical and mundane in order to cut ties to the land and carry out her mission anywhere on the globe where there was water to float her.

*** I liked sailors, officers and enlisted men from all parts of the land, farms of the Midwest, small towns of New England , from the cities, the mountains and the prairies, from all walks of life. I trusted and depended on them as they trusted and depended on me - for professional competence, for comradeship, for strength and courage. In a word, they were "shipmates"; then and forever.

*** I liked the surge of adventure in my heart, when the word was passed: "Now set the special sea and anchor detail - all hands to quarters for leaving port," and I liked the infectious thrill of sighting home again, with the waving hands of welcome from family and friends waiting pier side.

*** The work was hard and dangerous; the going rough at times; the parting from loved ones painful, but the companionship of robust Navy laughter, the "all for one and one for all" philosophy of the sea was ever present.

*** I liked the serenity of the sea after a day of hard ship's work, as flying fish flitted across the wave tops and sunset gave way to night.

*** I liked the feel of the Navy in darkness -- the masthead and range lights, the red and green navigation lights and stern light, the pulsating phosphorescence of radar repeaters - they cut through the dusk and joined with the mirror of stars overhead. And I liked drifting off to sleep lulled by the myriad noises large and small that told me that my ship was alive and well, and that my shipmates on watch would keep me safe.

*** I liked quiet mid-watches with the aroma of strong coffee -- the lifeblood of the Navy permeating everywhere.

*** And I liked hectic watches when the exacting minuet of haze-gray shapes racing at flank speed kept all hands on a razor edge of alertness.

*** I liked the sudden electricity of "General quarters, general quarters, all hands man your battle stations," followed by the hurried clamor of running feet on ladders and the resounding thump of watertight doors as the ship transformed herself in a few brief seconds from a peaceful workplace to a weapon of war -- ready for anything.

*** And I liked the sight of space-age equipment manned by youngsters clad in dungarees and sound-powered phones that their grandfathers would still recognize.

*** I liked the traditions of the Navy and the men and women who made them.

I liked the proud names of Navy heroes: Halsey, Nimitz, Perry, Farragut, John Paul Jones and Burke. A sailor could find much in the Navy: comrades-in-arms, pride in self and country, mastery of the seaman's trade. An adolescent could find adulthood.

** In years to come, when sailors are home from the sea, they will still remember with fondness and respect the ocean in all its moods - the impossible shimmering mirror calm and the storm-tossed green water surging over the bow. And then there will come again a faint whiff of stack gas, a faint echo of engine and rudder orders, a vision of the bright bunting of signal flags snapping at the yardarm, a refrain of hearty laughter in the wardroom and chief's quarters and mess decks.

*** Gone ashore for good they will grow wistful about their Navy days, when the seas belonged to them and a new port of call was ever over the horizon.

*** Remembering this, they will stand taller and say, "I WAS A SAILOR ONCE, AND I WOULD DO IT AGAIN."

Agent Orange Info and Ship Fresh Water: Source?????

Agent orange was brought back to the carriers by static electricity and was washed off with fresh water system which was recirculated into fresh water on the ship. Not water soluble, so remained in our water system until we ingested them. What static electricity, how was it recirculated into fresh water....?

Joe Ziemian Info changes:

As always, thanks for your dedication to the Squadron and the newsletter. After many years, I looked at the Saints roster again and noticed my info is a little out of date. Maybe 9 years. And you've been on duty before that. Wow!
